COMMENTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE TOWN MANAGER

The old road referred to in this column last week is located in East Bethel supposedly across the land now owned by Donald Holt. The Selectmen personally viewed the present location and instructed the Manager to pursue investigation as to rights-of-way and the town's responsibility for maintenance. A surveyor has been retained to map out the layout as described originally in 1840.

Over 1,000 yards of gravel has been hauled to the dump. We are attempting to bring the dumping area to a higher elevation in the hopes people will dump over the edge.

The assessors established the 1973 tax rate at $50.00 per thousand of valuation. In 1972 the rate was $51.00. Bills will be mailed as soon as the valuation book is typed. This usually takes three to four weeks.

MAINE DEER SEASONS SET

Maine's 1973 deer hunting season dates have been announced by the Department of Inland Fisheries and Game.

After a meeting with staff wildlife biologists, warden supervisors, advisory council members, and legislators, Commissioner Maynard F. March announced the 1973 deer hunting dates as follows:

Firearms season begins Oct. 23 in the northern zone and Nov. 5 in the southern zone; it ends on Nov. 24 in both zones. The special archery season opens Oct. 1 in both zones and ends Oct. 27 in the north and Nov. 3 in the south.

The zone line is the same as in 1972, dividing the state at about the latitude of Moosehead Lake.

There is general agreement among department field personnel that, overall, the Maine deer herd has continued to improve from its low point in 1971, particularly in the southern zone. Deer numbers and their condition throughout most of the state are somewhat better than last year at this time. A notable exception has been in northwestern Maine where recoverey has not been as good, due to more severe winter weather conditions.

The 1973 seasons compare with 1972 this way: 16 hunting days in the southern zone, which is the same as last year; 24 hunting days in the northern zone, six fewer than the 30 days in 1972.

"NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH" TO BE IMPLEMENTED IN OXFORD COUNTY

Oxford County Sheriff Alton L. Howe has announced that he has been chosen to participate in the National Sheriffs' Association's efforts to reduce burglary and larceny nationally and in Oxford County.

The National Sheriff's Association (NSA) has more than 24,000 members in all American states and territories. Sheriff Howe has been chosen, according to NSA Executive Director Ferris E. Lucas, because of his demonstrated concern for the safety of the citizens of Oxford County.

The program to combat burglary and larceny, known as "Operation Neighborhood Watch," is designed to make the citizens aware of these specific crimes as well as to enlist citizen support to reduce these offenses. The program is supported by a grant awarded by the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration of the United States Department of Justice (LEAA). The National Sheriffs Association was chosen to administer the program because the sheriff is traditionally the chief law enforcement officer of his county, with countywide law enforcement authority and responsibility.

Sheriff Howe has been notified that he will be furnished with informational material which will explain the citizen's role in "Operation Neighborhood Watch" in Oxford County. For the program to be successful the cooperation of the law-abiding citizens of Oxford County is essential.

The specific crimes of burglary and larceny were chosen as the focal point of this program because burglary has increased 70% and larceny has increased 109% during the past five years. They therefore represent a countrywide problem and approximately 70% of all reported crimes, nationwide.

Sheriff Howe stated that informational material pertaining to the National Neighborhood Watch Program would be available at service stations, supermarkets, etc., by Friday of this week. He urges all property owners to avail themselves of this free material; it contains information on measures to apply to prevent burglaries.

Sheriff Howe stated that the crimes of breaking, entering and larceny and plain larceny, were the major crimes that his deputies and the officers of the other enforcement agencies in the county have to spend the most amount of time investigating.

The Sheriff added that he was confident that the combined efforts of the area police agencies and property owners and non-property owners as well, would result in a substantial reduction of the crime.

S. A. D. 44 BOARD HOLDS REGULAR SESSION LAST MONDAY EVENING

The board of directors of S. A. D. 44 held a regular meeting Monday evening of this week at Telstar Regional High School.

Mrs. Betty Ann Hastings was sworn in as a board member from Bethel, succeeding Mrs. Margaret Crosbie, resigned.

Basil E. Kinney, superintendent reviewed with the board a "Report from the Community Committee for the Evaluation of Kindergarten through Grade 6." This report is the result of the work by over 30 interested citizens of the Bethel and Locke Mills area concerning changes and priorities that would enhance the program at the elementary level.

The board authorized the superintendent and the finance committee to secure bid quotations for temporary borrowing for operating expenses only during the 1974 fiscal year. The total in aggregate not to exceed $800,000, with no more than $300,000 being outstanding at any one time.

The directors have in hand an addition to their by-laws with regard to special meetings, as follows. "When in the opinion of the chairman, emergencies shall be determined to exist, the requirements of notice and agenda shall be fulfilled by a telephone call preceding the emergency session by not less than 24 hours." Under provisions of the by-laws providing for their own amendment action will be taken at the next regular board meeting.

The transfer of Miss Carol Stuart from kindergarten-transitional (Title I) to grade 1 at Andover Elementary School was approved.

Receiving final approval by the board was an addition to district policy concerning grade one enrollment, as follows: "Any grade one (1) whose enrollment exceeds 21 may operate on a ½ day basis for the first semester of the school year. (Grades having more than 21

NEWRY

— Miss Amy E. Hanscom, Cor. —

Karen's and Eric's mole Siamese has been found after three weeks of worry and wondering. Titus wandered towards Upton and got caught on the other side of the river in a fierce rainstorm. Cold and wet, he came upon two campers near Screw Auger Falls and climbed into their shelter to get some warmth. The campers immediately took a fancy to him. With no identification, they had no idea who the cat could belong to. Therefore, when they left to go home to Portland, they took Titus with them. Meanwhile, in Portland, working in a Health Food Store, Eric's sister-in-law, Sally, overheard a girl telling of some friends finding a beautiful, male, Siamese cat in Grafton Notch. Being very curious, Sally asked about the cat, and was convinced that he was Titus. The description fitted him exactly. Sally "screamed" home to tell her husband, Craig. With an address they found the apartment and the cat. Sure enough, it was Titus. Finding the cat alive and well was fine, but the campers weren't going to give him up that easily. They wanted photographs of Titus, to be sure of his identity. Convinced that it was the same cat, the campers let him go, and Titus was on his way home to his camp in Newry. Karen and Eric are very happy to have him home again.

PUBLIC BROADCASTING TO EXAMINE 106th LEGISLATURE ON JULY 2 PROGRAM

"Legislators come and go, but the State House press corps is always there." So says one veteran observer of the Maine State Legislature. The newsmen who follow the daily events at the State House in Augusta have a unique perspective on the workings of the state's 184 legislators.

Four State House reporters will look back at the regular session of the 106th Maine Legislature, in a special one-hour edition of "Maine News and Comments", on Monday, July 2, at 7 p. m. "Maine News and Comment", an in-depth news and interview program, is produced by the Maine Public Broadcasting Network (MPBN) and seen weeknights on MPBN's three public TV channels and on WCBB in Augusta.

On hand for this post-session look at the legislature will be John Cole, editor of the "Maine Times", Dave Swearingen of the Associated Press, John Day of the "Bangor Daily News", and Lee Loring, MPBN's State House Reporter, Executive producer Dave Platt will host the hour long discussion. The newsmen will talk about the highlights of this year's session in Augusta — looking back at some of the more important issues, and looking ahead to the effects of the 106th Maine Legislature.

This special "Maine News and Comment" is being produced by Dave Platt and Lee Loring. The program will air on MPBN's WMEB-TV, Channel 12, Orono; WMEM-TV, Channel 10, Presque Isle, and WMED-TV, Channel 13, Calais. WCBB, Channel 10, Augusta, will also carry the "News and Comment" special.

NON-RESIDENT LICENSES FEES TO INCREASE IN OCTOBER

Non-resident hunters planning on a Maine hunting trip this fall have a opportuity to save by buying a license early.

The 106th Legislature has made a modest increase in two non-resident license fees, and the increases become effective 90 days after adjournment.

The session has not ended yet, but it is expected that the 90 days will be up around the first of October. So a saving is in order for license buyers who act before then.

The non-resident big game license, now $42.50, goes to $46.50 around Oct. 1, while the small game license, now $20.50, goes to $22.50 at that time.

UPTON

— Mrs. Arline Bernier, Corres. —

The cloudburst Thursday did much damage to this area—Black Street became impassable and Saturday the State trucks hauled gravel. Meanwhile the Camerons and friends hauled their timbers and material needed for building by muscle power.

Town meeting was held at the school house Saturday night with 17 voters and a few visitors present. It was voted to buy the State truck and plows which will be released in the Fall. It was also voted to accept the zoning plan as presented at the meeting.

Horace Goodrum died Friday morning in Massachusetts where the family was on vacation planning a deep sea fishing trip.

When Edd Brennen calls and finds no one about, rather than leave a note or calling card, he drops his license plate in the driveway. Rather unusual and limits the calls he can make especially at 4 a. m. when most folks are still asleep.

Roy Haley cut the end of a finger off with the blade of his lawn mower.

I knew almost nothing about geese when I acquired a pair last week, but when they promptly got out of the fence I built and strolled down the road during town meeting, I discovered they are at least as easy to drive as cattle and I enjoyed the walk with them in spite of the hilarity and remarks by husband, friends and neighbors along the way.

Lori Alexander and Theresa Presby of the Portland area have joined our family for a week under New Friends program sponsored by the Extension Service. Their biggest complaint about country life is the bugs.

Bobby Joe Tucci spent the week end at the Tucci camp.

Percy Jefferson was at his camp Sunday.

We had the first thing from our garden today, radishes, and were they good. The gardens look good in spite of the rains.

Mrs. Sayward Lamb entertained the Fellowship, Universalist Church, at her cottage, across the way from us on Monday.

We saw a loon on North Pond last week. He came up in front of Cozy Nook. He dove under the water immediately and came up about 100 feet away near Tucci's camp. Before one could hardly wink he went down again. I then lost interest as I knew he would be around the bend the next time he came up and out of my sight.

When we first owned this camp there were quite a number of loons "laughing" on the lake but now the pond has so many camps we seldom see them and I haven't heard one for a long time.

Summer came in the 21st of June. Maybe it will bring better camping weather for all.

School has closed and the children are visiting with their cousins in North Woodstock. The Campbells entertain them in town at their home.
